BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

An Act making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct and work relief defining the purposes for which such moneys may be expended providing for the audit of such expenditures and prescribing the powers and duties of the State Emergency Relief Board and of certain State departments.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 870 (House Bill No. 1487), as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct and work relief defining the purposes for which such moneys may be expended providing for the audit of such expenditures and prescribing the powers and duties of the State Emergency Relief Board and of certain State departments

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) is hereby specifically appropriated to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct relief and work relief as hereinafter provided

Section 2 The State Emergency Relief Board shall make allocations monthly of the amounts to be distributed from the appropriation made by section one of this act among the several counties of this Comonwealth on the basis of need

Section 3 The moneys so allocated to a county shall be available for expenditure in that county for relief as the State Emergency Relief Board shall determine

Whenever the State Emergency Relief Board has determined to expend any part of a county's allocation for work relief on State highways and bridges thereon it shall pay such part of the county's allocation into the Motor License Fund and it shall therafter be expended in accordance with existing laws by the Department of Highways in such county in the construction and improvement of such State highways and bridges thereon as shall have been designated by the State Emergency Relief Board and the labor employed by the department (other than that required for supervision engineering and in the operation of road machinery) in such construction work shall be furnished by residents of such county in need of employment to be selected in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Emergency Relief Board

The amount available in any county over and above the sum set aside by the State Emergency Relief Board for work relief shall be available for expenditure for the purchase of food clothing fuel and shelter for the unemployed in such county through such public and private agencies as shall be designated by the State Emergency Relief Board and under such rules and regulations as the board shall adopt

Section 6 The amounts expended under the provisions of this act shall be audited by the Auditor General as provided by law

Section 7 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I intend to vote for this bill, although I regard the bill as unconstitutional. I wish to take a few minutes of the time of the Senate to explain my position.

I have in my hand an opinion of Attorney-General Schnader, rendered to the House of Representatives under date of December 7, 1931, and printed in the Legislative Journal of December 7, 1931, page 177. Attorney-General Schnader said:

"If there were in the bill a requirement that the money should be used for unemployment relief, the appropriation would be for a 'charitable purpose.' As stated by the present Chief Justice in TAYLOR v. HOAG, 273 Pa. 194, at page 196, '* * * The word "charitable," in a legal sense, includes every gift for a general public use, to be applied, consistent with existing laws, for the benefit of an indefinite number of persons, and designed to benefit them from an educational, religious, moral, physical or social standpoint. * * *' In the St. Agnes Hospital case, already cited, the Court held definitely that an appropriation for the care and treatment of indigent persons in hospitals was an appropriation for a charitable or benevolent purpose."

I call attention to the fact that Section 5 of the present bill provides that "The amount available in any county over and above the sum set aside by the State Emergency Relief Board for work relief shall be available for expenditure for the purchase of food, clothing, fuel and shelter for the unemployed in such county through such public and private agencies as shall be designated by the State Emergency Relief Board and under such rules and regulations as the board shall adopt."

It is my opinion that the statement of law which I have read from the opinion of Attorney-General Schnader was a correct statement of law. It directly applies to the bill now under consideration. The Supreme Court did not apply that rule in the case of COMMONWEALTH v. LIVERIGHT, in which the constitutionality of the first Talbot Bill was before the courts, because that particular act was a poor law.

I make this explanation because as a Senator I took oath to uphold the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and I do believe that this act is in violation of the constitution; that it is, in effect, a charitable bequest prohibited by the Constitution of Pennsylvania. However, this morning I received a letter, addressed to me and signed by all the members of the Dauphin County Emergency Relief Board, which reads as follows:

"A very critical situation will exist in Dauphin County if no additional funds are available to carry this work through the last two weeks of April. The funds allocated to Dauphin County will be exhausted by the middle of the month, and 6,500 families, or approximately 30,000 men, women and children, will be without food unless we secure additional funds.

"In this desperate emergency will you please use your utmost endeavors to have legislation adopted immediately to prevent this unthinkable catastrophe? Our hungry must be fed, and our hope is that all other legislative matters may be postponed until action is taken to relieve those who otherwise must suffer.

"Thanking you in advance for anything you can do to help in this most critical time, we are

Respectfully yours,

Dauphin County Emergency Relief Board."

In view of this letter, I shall waive my constitutional objections and vote in favor of this bill. Ever since this Session started I have used my best efforts to secure relief for the poor of Pennsylvania through the method in which it can be done, as pointed out by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in the case of COMMONWEALTH v. LIVERIGHT; but in view of this emergency I shall vote for this bill, and I appreciate the courtesy of the Senate in permitting me to give this brief explanation.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION REQUESTING STATE-AID INSTITUTIONS TO MAKE PURCHASES OF SUPPLIES WITHIN THE COMMONWEALTH

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 12, 1933.

Whereas, The present unemployment situation in the Commonwealth is due to the shutting down of many of her industries caused by the failure of such industries to dispose of their products; and

Whereas, The resumption of these industries would mean the re-employment of many persons, the increase of purchasing power by the payment of wages, and the gradual return of prosperity; and

Whereas, Many State-aided institutions unknowingly assist in causing unemployment within the Commonwealth by making purchases of necessary supplies outside of the Commonwealth, thereby depriving business and industry of the profit arising from such sales, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Legislature requests the directors or managers of all institutions receiving State-aid to hereafter make all purchases of supplies for such institutions within the Commonwealth unless lack of competition within the Commonwealth makes such purchase uneconomic; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to the trustees, directors or managers of all institutions receiving aid from the Commonwealth.

REQUESTING STATE DEPARTMENTS TO PURCHASE PENNSYLVANIA PRODUCTS

Mr. GILLETTE offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

In the House of Representatives, April 12, 1933.

Whereas, The present unemployment situation in the Commonwealth is due to the shutting down of many of her industries caused by the failure of such industries to dispose of their products; and

Whereas, The resumption of these industries would mean the re-employment of many persons, the increase of purchasing power by the payment of wages, and the gradual return of prosperity; and

Whereas, Many State-aided institutions unknowingly assist in causing unemployment within the Commonwealth by making purchases of necessary supplies outside of the Commonwealth, thereby depriving business and industry of the profit arising from such sales; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Legislature requests the directors or managers of all institutions receiving State-aid to hereafter make all purchases of supplies for such institutions within the Commonwealth unless lack of competition within the Commonwealth makes such purchase uneconomic; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to the trustees, directors or managers of all institutions receiving aid from the Commonwealth.

Will the House adopt the resolution?

RESOLUTION No. 64

Mr. HABBYSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 64, Printer's No. 497.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 3, 1933.

The committee on unemployment relief of the House of Representatives in its report has strongly endorsed work relief as preferable to any other type of relief

Many municipalities and quasi-municipalities in this Commonwealth in conjunction with relief authorities have instituted public improvements to create projects to make work available

In the prepondering majority of such cases the municipality or quasi-municipality had no right to hire labor to specify how much labor was to be hired to discharge labor or to specify how many days per week such labor was to be employed but the relief authorities assigned to such work applicants for relief who would otherwise be entitled to and would receive direct relief and issued food fuel and clothing orders in consideration of such employment

The majority of such municipalities and quasi-municipalities carry insurance in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund covering their ordinary employes

On or about March twenty-fourth one thousand nine hundred thirty-three the State Workmen's Insurance Fund mailed to such municipalities a letter and an endorsement of which the following are copies

"Re Policy

In view of the liability which has arisen as the result of the use of Emergency Unemployment Relief Labor the Pennsylvania Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau found it necessary to revise the rate to take care of this additional liability

Therefore the policy now held by you issued by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund in addition to covering your regular employes is hereby endorsed to take care of the labor furnished by local Welfare Committees The rate applicable to this type of employment has been set at $1.00 per week per person It is necessary that an accurate account be kept of the number of men employed each week and this report submitted to the State Workmen's Insurance Fund monthly The premium charge will be billed on a monthly basis and a check for the premium will have to be forwarded to our office upon the receipt of the bill

Within the next week or ten days an Auditor from the State Workmen's Insurance Fund will call on you to audit your payroll from January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-three to the present time to determine the number of men employed on which to enable us to arrive at a premium charge After the audit has been completed a billing will be presented indicating the amount of addtional premium due as the result of this type of labor

Yours very truly

STATE WORKMEN'S INSURANCE FUND"

SPECIAL ENDORSEMENT
COVERING
EMERGENCY RELIEF EMPLOYMENT

"The Pennsylvania Workmen's Compensation Act is now interpreted to include welfare workers as employes of the political division or institution for which work is done and liability under the Compensation Act for these employes by virtue of this endorsement is undertaken by the policy to which this endorsement is attached Premium shall be computed per person employed for any length of time in each week under the following classification and premium charge

'nine hundred eighty-one Welfare Workers-Emergency Relief employment-premium charge one dollar per person irrespective of the period of employment'

"The employer covered by this policy in consideration of insurance of liability provided by this endorsement agrees to keep a record of the persons employed for any length of time during each week and to pay a premium in accordance with the terms of this endorsement

"This endorsement is effective January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-three and is attached to and forms a part of Policy Number issued by STATE WORKMEN'S INSURANCE FUND to

"Dated at Harrisburg Pa this twenty-fourth day of March one thousand nine hundred thirty-three"

STATE WORKMEN'S INSURANCE FUND
Manager.

The prohibitive rate made retroactive by such ruling for a period of three months creates an unanticipated and unjust burden upon such municipalities and quasi-municipalities which many will be unable to pay without increased taxation on an already overburdened citizenry

The ruling if sustained will result in the absolute cessation of work relief in such municipalities and quasi-municipalities as carry compensation insurance in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund therefore be it

Resolved By the House of Representatives that a committee of five members be appointed by the Speaker of the House to which this resolution shall be immediately referred with the recommendation that such committee give urgent attention to remedial action

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

RESOLUTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS FROM CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL No. 215

Mr. JOHN J. KANE offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

Resolved, That the Committee on Elections be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 215, entitled "An act to enable cities of the second class to adopt the city manager plan of government with proportional representation for the election of council, providing the procedure for the adoption of discontinuance thereof, making suitable provisions for the conduct of elections and city government thereunder, in connection therewith imposing certain duties on mayors, city councils, election officers, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, and courts of common pleas, and providing punishments for violations thereof, and providing for the termination of the terms of certain officers when the plan provided by this act becomes effective," which bill has been in the hands of the said committee since January 18, 1933, a period of more than ten days.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as I stated in the resolution to discharge the committee yesterday, I regret that it is necessary to present this resolution at this time, for I realize there is a tremendous amount of business to be transacted by this House, but this bill, as is stated in the resolution, has been in the hands of the committee since January 18th.

I have conferred frequently with the chairman of that committee, and also the chairman of the sub-committee. There is a very strong sentiment in favor of this legislation in the city of Pittsburgh. It is purely a home rule bill, and gives to the voters of that city the right to determine whether or not they desire a change of government, and I believe the people of Pittsburgh are entitled to know how the members of this House feel on that kind of legislation. As I have already stated, I repeatedly tried to persuade the committee to at least put this measure on the calendar and let this House decide whether or not they desired to give the people of Pittsburgh that opportunity. Up until today I have been unable to get this bill to a hearing in the sub-committee. The Committee on Elections did give the bill consideration, but the sub-committee up to today has not, and I therefore ask the members of this House to vote to discharge this committee and place the bill on the calendar.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill, House Bill No. 215, which is before you, is known as the Pittsburgh City Manager Bill. This bill was before the Committee of which I happen to be chairman. I wish to state that the bill did receive consideration in that committee. As a matter of fact a large public hearing was had upon it, together with the Senate Elections Committee in the Senate Chamber. Because of the fact that this bill pertains solely to the city of Pittsburgh, the metropolitan district, this bill was referred to a sub-committee composed only of members of that county. Mr. Steedle was appointed chairman of the sub-committee. That sub-committee has the bill under consideration. As yet the sub-committee has not reported back to the main committee. The bill is highly controversial, and there is quite a difference of opinion among the members of that sub-committee. It was our thought that the men from that county should personally determine among themselves what action should be taken on the bill before the House was asked to pass upon it.

Inasmuch as this bill is under consideration at the present time by the sub-committee, I would ask the members of this House to vote this motion down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Quinn and Mr. McGinnis.

Mr. HARMUTH. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

DISCHARGING COMMITTEE

Mr. BERNHARD offered a resolution which was twice read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 12, 1933.

Resolved, That the Committee on Railroads and Railways be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 737 entitled, "An act to promote the safety of travelers and employes upon railroads by prohibiting common carriers by railroad hauling trains excessive in length; providing penalties; and providing for enforcement by the Public Service Commission," which bill was referred to the Committee on Railroads and Railways on February 7, 1933, and has been in the hands of the said Committee for a period of more than ten days.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, since time is very limited, I will just refer to the title of this bill. This is a safety measure, an act to promote the safety of travelers and employes.

Mr. MYERS. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, yesterday at a meeting of the committee on Railroads and Railways, House Bill No. 737 was reported back to that committee by the sub-committee. After careful deliberation of the measure by a majority vote of the members present the bill was disposed of. Therefore I ask you to vote "no" on this resolution.

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the vote was very close and the argument was that it was a costly proposition. I would like to read a little note in the "Press" of yesterday and this morning. "General Atterbury's salary is said to have been reduced from $141,000 to $109,000."

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. GALLAGHER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion for a roll call.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was thoroughly discussed in committee yesterday—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Carbon, Mr. Bernhard, will state his point of order.

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is out of order, as we are taking a roll call.

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman from Carbon, Mr. Bernhard, that the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Storb, is in order, and will proceed.

Does the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Storb, desire to interrogate the gentleman from Carbon, Mr. Bernhard?

Mr. STORB. I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Carbon, Mr. Bernhard, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BERNHARD. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Carbon if that is the bill that limits the number of cars to a train?

Mr. BERNHARD. The Chairman has so stated.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, this bill was thoroughly discussed yesterday and was voted down by a large majority.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Bernhard and Mr. Gallagher.

Mr. WELSH. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

ORDER OF BUSINESS

PLACING NEGATIVELY REPORTED BILLS ON CALENDAR

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the next order of business, motions to place negatived bills on the calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the committee.

PLACING BILL ON CALENDAR

Mr. FITZGERALD offered the following resolution which was read twice by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 12, 1933.

Resolved, That House Bill No. 925, Printer's No. 809, entitled "An act to provide for the investigation and study of wages of women and minors employed in trade and industry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and for the determination and establishment of minimum fair wage standards for such workers; and for the purpose of preventing unfair and oppressive exploitation of such workers; and for other purposes," which was reported to the House by the Committee on State Government on April 10th, 1933 with a negatived recommendation, be placed on the calendar notwithstanding the negatived recommendation of the committee.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is not my intent to go into a lengthy statement of the details of this bill. I merely ask the members of this House to extend to me the consideration that they would like extended to them, by placing this bill on the calendar. It is not my intent to take up too much of the time of this House, but I believe I am only fair in asking that this bill may be brought out in the light where we may all view it and cast our vote accordingly. With these few brief remarks I again ask you to give me the same consideration I have always shown to you.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill under consideration is House Bill No. 925, which was referred to the Committee on State Government. As chairman of that Committee I desire to make just a few statements. The bill received the very careful consideration of the committee, but in view of certain constitutional questions, and also certain economic questions highly controversial, the committee did not see fit to give this bill a favorable consideration, and therefore it was reported to this House, with a negative recommendation.

Personally, it would appear to me that this matter ought to be considered very carefully by a commission appointed by this House under proper resolution to study the whole question, and that it ought not at this time be placed on the calendar.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides for the studying of and fixing of minimum wages for women and minors in the State of Pennsylvania. Such laws are on the Staute books of California, Massachusetts and other states. The New York Legislature has just adopted such a measure. Some bills deserve the consideration of the membership of this House at this time. According to the investigators of the Department of Labor and Industry the women in the State of Pennsylvania are working a 54 hour week, and in some cases more than that, in factories in the State of Pennsylvania, for wages of less than two dollars per week. You certainly know that no one can exist on wages like that. The Courts have upheld the police power of the Legislature to protect women and children by providing minimum wage laws and laws in some of the states which are now in effect have been passed on by the Courts and have been upheld.

This particular bill has been prepared by one of the leading constitutional lawyers of this country, and those of us who support it believe it will stand the test of the Courts. It certainly is of sufficient importance to permit the membership of this House to vote directly on it.

Do you want to leave the law in this State in such a condition that your wife and daughters and sweethearts can be compelled to work in a factory fifty-four hours a week for less than two dollars a week?

We have a condition of unemployment throughout this State, and a tremendous lot of it. Why should we allow thousands of men to walk the streets unable to get jobs at a time when women and children are being employed, and the reason they are being employed is because employers can get them to work for wages far below what they can get men to work for.

This law, if passed, will prevent the exploitation of our women and children, and I ask you to put the bill on the calendar and let us consider it fairly.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUTTON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman from Franklin to leave the inference in this House that this bill would probably be unconstitutional?

Mr. HUTTON. I do, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further ask the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, whether or not he is familiar with the fact that New York State just recently passed this identical bill and it was found to be constitutional.

Mr. HUTTON. I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Franklin aware that women and children working in industries are receiving no more than a dollar a week for a week of thirty to forty to fifty hours?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have no knowledge on that subject.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Does the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, believe this bill would affect the unemployment situation that exists today from women taking the place of male and other employes who would be employed were it not for the fact that they hold the position.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, that question is so involved that I cannot give an answer.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I merely mean to say that due to the fact that women and children are employed in industries it is impossible for males to secure these positions because of the low wages paid, and I am asking the gentleman whether he understands that to be a fact?

Mr. HUTTON. I have no opinion to express on that matter, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FITZGERALD. That is all, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am always opposed to interfering with the procedure of committees of this House. However, under the present condition I am in favor of bringing this bill out of committee. I am in favor of bringing this bill out of committee because my mail has been burdened down by petitions from children and mothers of children and parents of children, and men and women of all walks of life who feel this bill ought to be given consideration, at least on the floor of the House. For these reasons, out of consideration for the children and women who are represented in this bill, I shall vote to bring this bill out of committee.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Beech.

Mr. WELSH. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

ORDER OF BUSINESS

MOTIONS TO RECOMMIT

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the next order of business, motions to recommit.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT HOUSE BILL No. 2153

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 2153 (Senate Bill No. 729), Printer's No. 442, entitled

An Act requiring corporations of the second class to furnish reports to shareholders to file such reports with the Secretary of the Commonwealth giving the Secretary power to prescribe forms and make regulations prescribing penalties providing for certain exemptions and repealing inconsistent acts and parts of acts be recommitted to the Committee on Corporations for the purpose of public hearing.

The motion was agreed to.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the next order of business, motions to reconsider.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTES

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1843 (Senate Bill No. 638), Printer's No. 178, entitled

An Act providing for the appointment by the court of quarter sessions of the directors of the poor of the Erie County Poor District and abolishing the elected directors providing for the appointment and compensation of a director of welfare investigators assistants experts and employes and for the employment and compensation of elected directors whose terms have not expired and repealing existing laws was defeated on final passage on Monday, April 10, 1933, be reconsidered.

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Mason, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. MASON. I voted no, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Cordier, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. CORDIER. I voted no, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I rise on a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, in the reconsideration of a bill, is it not necessary for those having voted in the majority to make the motion to reconsider.

The SPEAKER. That point of order is well taken, but the Chair informs the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Fitzgerald, that the majority vote was for the noes and the bill was defeated, therefore it does not apply in this case. The rules have been complied with.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe, without taking up much of your time, that you are familiar with the fact that this is a subject entirely of home rule wherein against the wishes of the people there is an attempt being made to take from them the heritage that is due them under the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which provides that they shall elect their officials instead of having them appointed. I ask you to stand back of the spirit of the Constitution and vote "no" on this motion.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, I certainly regret having to take up the time of this House on this question. You have had it before you once before, and I submit it never should have come before this House. This is a matter, as my colleague has stated, that should be decided in Erie County.

Unless you don't know where Erie County is, let me tell you so you perhaps can find it on the map. It is that little odd-shaped county up in the northwest corner of the State that looks like a chimney or a smoke-stack on a mogul engine. We cannot help the size or shape or location any more than you can, but such as it is, there is one hundred and seventy-five thousand people with thirty to forty thousand voters in it. Do you mean to tell me that they are not able to decide these questions for themselves if they have a chance? Here is an effort to choke this law down their throats and come down here and have the members of the House decide the question that should be left for them to decide themselves. We are wasting your time and I am sorry to say that we cannot help it because it is forced on us to defend our own rights.

Erie County is my home and that is the reason why I want to preserve for the voters of Erie County the principle of home rule. This is a representative government, a democracy, a government of, by and for the people.

My ancestors went to Erie County a hundred and thirty years ago and they went on horseback, because there was no other way to get there. They have paid their taxes and they have voted for their officials and we want to continue to do it. Now, here comes a little clique of politicians who want to take that right away from us and I submit to you that if that was in Dauphin or in Berks county you would want to vote on it as much as I do.

I am homely but I am Irish and I can fight like an Irishman; and I will fight any man in this room singly. If you want to decide it that way, say so. I hope that you are honest and fair.

The SPEAKER. To whom is the gentleman from Erie addressing his remarks as far as fighting is concerned? Is the gentleman from Erie shaking his first at the Chair?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I find it extremely difficult to talk to the House because of the shutting and slamming of books, and they won't keep still while I am talking. Maybe they don't understand what I say, but that has a disturbing influence. I don't want to break a single rule of this House, but I do feel the House should understand the facts in this case. I am sorry to take up so much of your time, but I do feel that it is an imposition on the inhabitants of Erie County to have this matter brought down here to be decided on the floor of this House.

We have offered no objection to this bill, provided the sponsor would amend it by putting a provision for referendum in it. I beg of you, until they agree to do that, that you vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. KING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill which is before you passed the Senate by a vote of forty-one to nothing. It replaces an antiquated system in Erie County by a modern up-to-date system, and we hope the members of this House will vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. King.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. King, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Do you know, Mr. King, whether or not this is special legislation?

Mr. KING. It is, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Do you know whether or not the special provisions of the law have been complied with and proofs filed with the chairman of the committee in the Senate?

Mr. KING. Mr. Speaker, I do not understand the question.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I believe it is better, with your permission, to preface that remark by stating the requirements necessary to pass special legislation. With your indulgence I will do that. I am asking the Chair whether I may make a statement which prefaces my interrogation.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in order to pass the special legislation under consideration, it is necessary to file with the chairman of the committee proof of advertisement, that the bill is properly advertised once each week for four weeks prior to its introduction. I approached the chairman of the Committee and he knew nothing whatever about it.

My interrogation is this: I should like to know from Mr. King whether or not proof of advertising has been filed or not.

Mr. KING. It has been, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FITZGERALD. The gentleman from Erie, Mr. King, has evidently been informed of that within the last few seconds.

Mr. KING. I have, Mr. Speaker. It is on file in the Senate.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to wind up my argument by saying that we have offered a proposition on hime rule, every method and manner of amendment, and it has been rejected. I believe you are still with us to the extent of seeing fair play in permitting us to legislate for ourselves in Erie County. I again warn you that this is special legislation, and I believe it should be decided by the voters in the county affected, and I therefore ask you to vote down this motion.

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to call the attention of the members of the House to the fact that the section of the Constitution cited by Mr. Fitzgerald, the gentleman from Erie, does not apply to poor districts. I am not interested in this bill, but I want to call your attention to the fact.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for and one hundred and fifteen members or more than a majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker. I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry under this order of business.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, on House Bill 1009, the Committee on Education, which met this afternoon, decided to split the bill into two different bills and directed certain members so to do in order that the members might vote separately on the different propositions, which didn't seem to fit in the same bill.

Those amendments are now being drawn as rapidly as possible, and I am asking, in view of the fact that this is being done by the members of the Committee, an opportunity be given to present those reports. It will take a few minutes to draw these amendments.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman from McKean that the order of the day has been fixed by this House for today. After finishing point fifteen of the program, we will then take up today's calendar, bills on first reading, bills on second reading and then bills on third reading.

The Chair further desires to state to the gentleman from McKean that if, of course, unanimous consent is granted at any time the request will be in order.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1681

Mr. SOWERS presented the report of the Committee of Conference of House Bill No. 1681.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTIONS

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 948 FROM THE GOVERNOR

In the House of Representatives, April 12, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 948, entitled "An act making an appropriation of moneys in the Motor License Fund to the Board of Finance and Revenue to meet interest and Sinking Fund requirements on the state debt," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

RESOLUTIONS TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEES

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the next order of business, limited to one-half hour, resolutions discharging committees from further consideration of bills.

Mrs. WILSON offered the following resolution which was twice read by the Clerk os follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 12, 1933.

Resolved that the Committee on Constitutional Amendments be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 213, entitled "A joint resolution approving the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to the labor of persons under eighteen years of age." which bill was referred to the said committee on January 18, 1933, and has been in the hands of said committee for a period of more than ten days.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mrs. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I move to discharge the Committee on Constitutional amendments from further consideration of this measure, House Bill

No. 213, because I believe the members are disinterested and even hostile to legislation of this kind and do not intend to report out the bill.

This bill was introduced January 17th and referred to this Committee January 18th, but no meeting was held until March 7th. At that meeting I asked about getting action on the bill, and was informed that no amendments which had not been passed by the last regular session of the Legislature would be considered. I then asked for a public hearing and the Chairman agreed to it, provided there seemed to be a demand for it. Shortly after that he told me he had been deluged with hundreds of letters and would call a hearing. That hearing was held last Wednesday. We were to have an hour for it, but owing to the House being in session overtime only twenty minutes were alloted for those in favor of the bill to speak for it, although I understood the Speaker of the House to say that a committee could sit during the session if desirable. I asked this privilege of the chairman of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments but he was overruled by other members of the Committee who were not interested, and the hearing was adjourned.

Representatives of organizations and individuals who had come many miles and at their own expense to testify at this hearing were denied the right to present their views on this important legislation and the hearing turned out to be more or less a joke and a farce.

To date the Committee on Constitutional Amendments has not met to take action of Bill 213 or report it out of Committee, and there seems very little prospect of it being done.

Men and women of the House, I only wish I could picture to you the nights and days for months at a time which I have spent in sections where little children are doing the work of grown men and women. From the cranberry marshes of New Jersey to the beet fields of Colorado and Utah, from the woolen mills of New England to the cotton mills of the South, these little ones, some as young as four years old, work days and nights in many places. Their little bodies are shrunken, their faces are old, they are suffering from lack of sunshine and proper foods, which causes rickets and other diseases of malnutrition. Only the members of the human family, my friends, would treat their children in such a manner. No beast of burden, no bird of the air would place upon the back of their young the burdens the State of Pennsylvania places upon the backs of the children of the human race. Charlotte Perkins Gilman has put it very aptly when she said,

"No fledgling feeds the father bird,
No chicken scratches for the hen,
No kitten mouses for the cat,
That glory is for men.
"We are the greatest, wisest race,
Long may our praise be sung,
The only animal living today
That preys upon its young."

My friends, I ask you to vote in favor of the motion to discharge the Committee on Constitutional Amendments from further consideration of this measure.

Mr. KING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Committee on Constitutional Amendments granted the proponents of the Federal Child Labor amendments a hearing last week, Wednesday. Through no fault of the Committee nor of its chairman the time allotted was reduced from one hour to forty minutes, due to the extension of the time in which the House was in session. The proponents of the measure were granted thirty minutes of the forty minutes and the opposition but ten minutes. As I say, they were given thirty minutes out of the forty, three-quarters of the time, and the meeting almost broke up in a riot through no fault of the Committee.

We had the intention to call a meeting today, but having understood that the Committee was to be discharged through action of the House, I have not called that meeting up to this time.

I ask the members to vote down this motion.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I must state to you that I do not agree with all the statements made to you by the lady from Berks.

I am a member of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments, and the record will disclose that on a previous occasion I voted to discharge this Committee. My action today remains to be determined.

I would like to correct the thought or opinion that might have been conveyed by Mrs. Wilson, that this delay is caused by members of the Committee being hostile to this legislation. I am not hostile to this legislation.

When the public hearing was held it was agreed that the gentlemen who appeared in opposition to this legislation would file briefs with the members of the Committee, and that after these briefs had been filed then the chairman of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments was to call a meeting and action on this bill would then be taken.

I make these remarks so as to get myself squarely on the record.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Gallagher.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Resolved that the Committee on Judiciary General be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 1304 entitled "An Act to amend section three hundred and one and to further amend section three hundred and six, clause five of section three hundred and seven, section four hundred and thirteen, and section four hundred and twenty-six of the act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, (P. L. 736), entitled 'Workmen's Compensation Act of 1915,' further defining the terms 'injury' and 'Personal injury,' reducting the waiting period; providing additional compensation for total disability; providing methods for the determination of partial disability; providing for payment of compensation for partial disbility in certain cases after termination of total disability and for additional compensation in certain cases of partial disability, further defining loss of the use of an eye; providing for compensation for parents of minor children and for those parents substantially dependent, eliminating the definition of hernia, eliminating the provision which limits reviews, modifications and reinstatements of agreements and rewards, and eliminating the provision which limits rehearings," which bill was referred to the Committee on Judiciary General on March 7, 1933 and has been in the hands of the said Committee for a period of more than ten days.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Yourishin and Mr. Hoopes.

The roll was called.

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to announce that there will not be time enough to verify the roll call. The Chair can not regulate the time. The Chair is perfectly willing to have the verification started, but it will have to cease at the time fixed for the special order of business.

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my request.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, when under a special order of business, is it not in order to complete the roll call and the verification thereof?

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman from Berks that at four twenty-five o'clock the special order of the day ceases for motions to discharge a committee. The roll has been called and the result will be announced. The verification is not a part of the calling of the roll. The Chair has attempted in every conceivable way to be fair in this half hour period allowed for this special order of business.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the Speaker for his courtesy, but I understood that under parliamentary procedure when the roll had been called and a verification had been asked for it was proper to complete it before taking up the next order of business.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the roll has been called and that there is not sufficient time to have the roll verified.

Amend page 8, line 8 by striking out the numeral "10" and inserting in lieu thereof the numeral: "7."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, by the amendments of the Senate the monies allotted under this measure go to the Emergency Relief Board for expenditure as the State Emergency Relief Board shall determine.

I wish to call the attention of the membership of this House to the fact that although innumerable requests voicing the opposition of constitutencies from all parts of the State, have been presented to the Emergency Relief Board against the commissary that by the enactment of this legislation the commissary will still persist in those communities where it is now instituted.

I come from a community where the commissary has been instituted and by all indications it will persist in case this money is allotted to the Emergency Relief Board, which will allow its continuation.

Governor Pinchot, when he addressed the Assembly, said or intimated that the commissary could be justified on the ground that it cost less and that it was able to feed more hungry mouths. A resolution has been passed by this House requesting from His Excellency information upon which he based that contention. Up to the present time he has not given to this House the data, the information or the statistics upon which he based his contention that the commissary system was cheaper and less expensive than any other system.

At an interview held by myself with His Excellency the Governor, which was also attended by the Speaker of the House, the House, the Governor intimated that the commissary was only two per cent cheaper under his figures than the Syracuse system of distributing relief, which the Emergency Relief Board contemplates instituting in Allegheny county and in Philadelphia county. I maintain that a saving of two per cent, which is not good business, good economy or good relief distribution, should not be used as an argument for the continuation of the commissary. The situation would be paradoxical. Conceding that there is a saving of two per cent, it would mean the closing up of many small merchants and it would mean much dissatisfaction in the distribution of relief.

In my own community for the past two weeks we have had four or five State Police controlling the distribution of the food—fearful of riot and disorder. I maintain that a saving of two per cent, which the Governor intimates is the entire economy of the commissary is not worth its continuation with such a serious menace attached to it. For that reason I ask the members of the House not to concur in the amendments.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when this bill was first before us you will recall that the Speaker of the House made himself available on the floor of the House to discuss the measure.

At that time I asked him a number of specific questions and two important ones: first, whether or not in the Senate this bill would be amended insofar as it related to the administration of relief and, second, whether or not in the Senate this bill would be amended so that the referred appropriation feature would be taken out. The bill returns to the House with both of those provisions deleted and in it now, as amended, is a direct appropriation of five million dollars of commissary funds for unemployment relief.

All of us who have read the press in the last two weeks must know that unless this bill passes today, as amended, thousands upon thousands of people in Pennsylvania will not after the fifteenth of this month receive their food orders. Their is only one question involved: will we have those people starve or not starve, and by your vote you answer that question.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want also to arise at this time and urge upon you the immediate passage of this bill and an immediate concurrence in these amendments.

The situation, as you all know, is most acute. Delay would be a calamity, and I say to you in all sincerity that there are thousands and thousands of people who are waiting for the action of this Legislature at this very moment. Food orders in the city of Philadelphia have been distributed for one week only. There are now people waiting and wondering whether they will get the next week's relief order. It is of paramount importance that next week they get food, and if they are to get food we must pass this measure.

I will ask you not to permit the gentleman from York to interfere with the immediate passage of this bill, because there never was and there never will be before you a bill of greater or more paramount importance.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, our State has never been confronted with a more serious situation than we are confronted with today. Relief funds in many counties are exhausted and our people are facing starvation.

This bill in my opinion is satisfactory in every detail, and therefore we should adopt it and pass it without a minute's delay.

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to join with the previous speakers in saying that I think every member of this House realizes the importance of the immediate passage of this legislation. It may not meet with the satisfaction of every member of this House, but I think that the time is here when we should quit squabbling over technicalities and give to the people of Pennsylvania something substantial in the form of relief.

This is the one relief measure we have to consider and I hope that the house will vote upon it unanimously.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I do not wish to extend this debate.

I believe that every member of this House understands the situation that confronts us and confronts the people of Pennsylvania, and I, therefore, merely wish to ask the members of this House to vote for this bill now, so that we may bring relief to the people of Pennsylvania at the earliest possible moment.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in order to be as brief as I could a minute ago, I inadvertently omitted to say one thing that I think this occasion demands: the sponsor of this bill is the Speaker of the House. If the Speaker of the House had any objections to the amendments that were made to this bill he would not now be before the rostrum.

He is to be commended for his whole hearted support in working out a reconciliation of all of the differences of opinion and making good the promise that he made on the floor of this House.

The Speaker. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has been before us on a previous occasion At that time I spoke against it, because I felt that it was very inadequate.

The admendments in the Senate have greatly increased the amount of the appropriation, and taken off the limits and improved the bill in other ways.

I, therefore, hope that all of you will vote for this measure so as to get relief for the people of Pennsylvania immediately.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to thank the Senate, through the gentleman from Berks, for drawing up a better bill.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is not my function or desire to be an obstructionist. I realize the necessity with which we are confronted. I also realize that if the problem of the commissary as it exists in my community were presented to each and every member in his own community, he would have seen that legislation had been passed by this House or the sentiment of this House would have been expressed before the emergncy, which we have at the present time, had arisen. He would have seen that some steps had been taken by this House to admonish any further continuation of the commissary.

It is my desire and it is my hope that this bill passes, but it is also my desire and my hope that every member of this House will dedicate himself to the proposition that the commissary system is not a part of our government, that it should not be extended into his own community and that they will lend aid to the members from York to eradicate it in our community.

Mr. WILLIAM A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with reference to this commissary plan, both Representative William L. Brown and myself have endeavored to make a disinterested study of the responsibility for instituting that system. We have approached the various members of the Relief Board.

As a result of our study, I think the responsibility for establishing this system does not rest on the General Assembly nor does it rest upon the Governor of Pennsylvania, but it rests squarely upon the men that started it, that is, certain local welfare boards who initiated this program. Therefore, finding that it was somewhat economical, it was backed up in the administration of the money.

I think that the objection of the gentleman from York has been removed, and I would urge that this bill be passed by the members of the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

STATEMENT BY MR. DAVID R. PERRY

Mr. DAVID R. PERRY asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House. Just a word of apology and explanation. This is my first term in the Legislature. Early in the session, I resolved not to rise to my feet nor delay the business of this House with my comments or suggestions. Now I ask your pardon for violating that promise. It is being done simply because in common slang "there are a lot of things boiling up inside that must come out."

We are entering the last weeks of perhaps the most important session of Legislature held in the State of Pennsylvania. We are entering into perhaps the most important of all that session. Every man and woman in this House, regardless of how they have voted or what their opinions may be, have sacrificed personal comfort, in some cases prejudiced their health in order to serve their various communities honestly and well. Yet despite their honest endeavors, the greatest handicap of all is being imposed upon their efforts. This handicap is the hoots and jeers of friends and critics alike, formed and guided by subtle propaganda issued on behalf of selfish interests. In many cases, that propaganda emanates from sources so high in State Government as to give it a semblance of truth.

During the past fifteen weeks especially, these men and women have sacrificed sleep and personal comfort, have given up much of their businesses and professions at home. This they have done in an honest attempt to benefit and represent their constituents. At the same time, their efforts and final achievements are being handicapped by many of the very people whom they represent and desire to benefit.

There is a reason for this condition.

In radio talks, in special articles of the daily and weekly newspapers in the past two weeks, in thousands of letters mailed at the expense of the Commonwealth, the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth, in his usual modest manner speaks of his program in which he provides "the greatest economy of public expenditure ever proposed by a Governor in the history of this country."

This is most unfair and most unjust. Recently this House passed the Economy Bill; this House passed House Bill No. 22; this House passed other important legislation, all of them the results of personal sacrifice and careful study upon the part of these members. And yet, "my economy program" says the Chief Executive, "will cut sixty million dollars in two years from the cost of State government," and in the same voice declares that the Legislators are simply playing politics. The story has been and is being broadcast in every conceivable way. So far it has cost the Pennsylvania taxpayers a pretty penny to listen to this tale. For in the effort to get that story to the people, the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth has tossed overboard his boasted rule of economy, namely that under this administration "no letters may be written when a post card will suffice."

Like early this week the Governor used some eighteen thousaid sheets of State paper, six thousand State envelopes and six thousand of the State three cent stamps to write letters to clergymen and others, telling them of the legislature's various sins, and to create a misunderstanding that will handicap the honest efforts of this body.

Last night, I understand, fifteen thousand sheets of State paper, five thousand State envelopes and five thousand of the State stamps were used to suggest unto the farmers and the members of the grange of this State, that their Legislature and their representatives are opposed to their interests; by cleverly worded insinuations more class suspicion has been created to handicap the efforts and attainments of this Legislature. So I understand ten thousand more of our men and women constituents will be notified that the brewer's big "hosses" will soon be running over them, all because this Legislature is opposed to the interests of the people, and incidentally this message will involve possibly thirty thousand more sheets of the State paper, ten thousand of the State's larger size envelopes and ten thousand of the State's three cent stamps, all in the apparent attempt to cause this Legislature to fail in its intent and accomplishments.

Incidentally, while post cards are good enough to conduct the State's business, yet they are not good enough for this type of propaganda. Does the Pennsylvania taxpayer realize he must pay these bills? Does the taxpayer realize to what extent this State was saddled last year by reason of mailing and printing bills incurred in a nation-wide but ill-fated campaign for the nomination of a high federal office. Surely they are small things, but small things show which way the wind blows; small things prove that true economy is more than a cloak to be put on and taken off at the will of the suggester.

Think for a moment, Mr. Speaker, of the effect of that statement made so often during the past two weeks—a statement that the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth has saved the taxpayers over six million dollars by reason of his economy—that the Legislature is and has been playing politics and failing their people. Is such a statement true and is it fair that the Chief Executive of this State should spread that statement among our people? At the close of Governor Fisher's term, the General Fund contained an unencumbered surplus of thirty-seven million eight hundred dollars. That was the unencumbered amount that his Excellency found waiting for him to start his first biennium. Estimated revenues of the net biennium 1931-1933 approximated one hundred sixty-six million, six hundred dollars, so I am informed. Add to that the surplus left by the preceding Governor and the total is two hundred and four million, four hundred thousand dollars. The estimated revenues of the 1933-1935 biennium, however, will approximate only one hundred and fifty-one million seven hundred thousand dollars, or the amount available for the next biennium will be fifty-two million seven thousand dollars less than for the one just ending. Remembering the unencumbered surplus of thirty-seven million eight hundred thousand dollars left by the preceding administration, we find that this much publicized economy slumps from sixty million dollars to the much smaller total of twenty million. And incidentally, leaves a considerable question as to whether that is really a saving or simply being compelled to live within ones estimated income. But the statement has been made and is being made that the Governor alone is economizing and that the Legislature is playing with politics.

I say that this statement and this attack is unfair, unjust and dangerous.

Mr. Speaker, this privilege of personal statement was asked not for the purpose of gaining personal publicity. It was not intended to justify the many times that we have been put needlessly "upon the spot." There are no political fences for me to mend. There is no intent upon my part to criticize either an individual or a party. But it is a desire to criticize and criticize strongly the policy that is now being pursued throughout this State. We of the Legislature have been laboring to solve the vital problems of these troublous times. We can succeed only when the citizens at home grant us confidence and support. Many of those citizens are denying us that confidence and that support largely because of the insidious propaganda that eminates from places of high office. Mr. Speaker, therein lies the danger. Today many citizens are muttering against their government, attacking its very foundation stones. Unrest and dissatisfaction is the spirit of the times. If this Legislature fails, we can but prophesy the result of the days to come. And shame upon any man or any group that would in days like these, incite our people through insidious and unfair propaganda for personal hobby and advantage.

That is the reason, Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House that I have asked the privilege to make this statement. It is not to criticize any individual nor any group, but rather it is to justify through achievement some of the sacrifices that every man and woman here has undergone for the people back home. There is but one hope, Mr. Speaker, and that is that the people in your community and the people in many communities will soon find out the truth of what is going on; that before it is too late they will discover that to which they are committing themselves; that while there is still time that the people will brand the man or woman who undertakes an insidious program of propaganda for selfish interests at the cost of government and its continued progress.

I thank the members of this house for their patience and I thank you, Mr. Speaker, for having accorded me this privilege.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be noted in the Journal and printed in the Legislative Journal.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WALTER S. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WALTER S. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, the last three lines on page 1 of House Bill No. 1705, Printer's No. 459, of the copy on my file, at the bottom of page 1 there seems to be a transposition in the last three lines. I simply call the attention of the Chair to the transposition in case it makes any difference in the final passage of the bill.

Mr. BALDI. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the error is a typographical one, and I will assure both the Speaker and the members of the House that the same will be corrected in the Senate. The only reason that I ask for a vote on it now without further delay is on account of the shortness of the time.

The SPEAKER. Does the Chair hear objection to the question of consideration of the bill? The Chair hears none.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1805, entitled:

An Act providing that the county commissioners of counties of the second class shall create a county department of welfare; defining the powers and duties of said department; providing for an advisory board and supervisory committees for institutions; providing for the taking over by the county of certain municipal functions and property, for the adjustment of indebtedness, and for the levy of taxes and incurring of indebtedness; abolishing the office of director of the poor; and providing for the transfer of certain functions to said department with the consent of the court.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HARMUTH. Mr. Speaker, may I ask that the sponsor of this bill explain the purpose of this bill to the House?

The SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of the bill explain the purpose of the bill to the House?

Mr. WILLIAM A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, in Allegheny County we are confronted with a very serious situation.

We have, I believe, appropriated, or attempted to appropriate, twenty-two million dollars for unemployment relief for the biennium in the State of Pennsylvania. According to the estimate of those who should know, the county of Allegheny is going to require thirty-four million dollars for the use of its own unemployed. We have districts in which there is as high a percentage as sixty-five percent of the citizens unemployed. Under the present construction of the law the City Department of Welfare cannot borrow money for direct relief, nor can the Poor Board. However, we have an extensive borrowing power in the county. This bill would combine the City Department of Welfare and the County Poor Board into one Department of Welfare. We have two homes in the county, one at Woodvale and one at Mayview, which is a quasi insane asylum, each of which maintains a separate psychopathic staff.

Under the terms of this bill one of these homes will be considered as an insane asylum and the other will be considered as a home for indigents, commonly known as a poor farm. The carrying out of this arrangement will be a great economy in the management of these two homes. One complete psychopathic staff can be disposed of. That is the main purpose of the bill. It is provided to be as fair as possible. The main purpose is to set up a financial back log in Allegheny County with proper credit, so that in case of another emergency we will have a financial backing which will help us pass over the crisis in the county.

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILLIAM A. WALKER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny under whose guidance this bill was put in?

Mr. WILLIAM A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, the bill was originally sponsored by me at the request of Mr. John Caisson of the Allegheny County Welfare Relief Board.

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman state whether this is the foundation of the consolidation between Pittsburgh and the balance of Allegheny County?

Mr. WILLIAM A. WALKER. Not in the least, Mr. Speaker. That idea might occur, however, because certain provisions of this bill were taken from the metropolitan plan of consolidation of the city and the county.

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman explain to the members of this House how there can be a consolidation of the city and county without having a proper consolidation?

Mr. WILLIAM A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, the bill provides a proper way for the consolidation of the homes. I might say that the Home for Contagious Diseases and the Tubercular Home in Pittsburgh will be exempted by amendment in the Senate from the operations of the bill.

Mr. BEECH. That does not answer my question, Mr. Speaker. Will the gentleman from Allegheny explain to the members of this House how they are going to unite Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh and what procedure there is for handling the same?

Mr. WILLIAM A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, there is no attempt in this bill to unite Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh. The aim of the bill is to unite the various relief agencies of the city and county and the various homes of the city and county, with the exception of the homes for contagious diseases and the hospitals for the treatment of tubercular cases. Those it aims to unite by centralizing them under one board for economical management.

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1033, Printer's No. 404, from page 53 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Quinn.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1033, entitled:

An Act to amend section seven hundred twenty-two, of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts, and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," as amended, exempting certain veterans' organizations from payment of fees for registration and certificates of titles of motor vehicles owned and used by them.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. QUINN. This bill provides for the elimination of a charge on automobile license plates for a number of organizations, the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the 40 and 8 organizations specifically where they have to use buses for conveying their drum corps and their instruments to various meetings.

These buses have been discarded by the Greyhound Line and turned over to three posts of the American Legion in this State, one at Tarentum, one at Uniontown and one at Greensburg. The men of those organizations have given their own time, labor and effort to reconstruct them for the purpose of conveying the bands to these various patriotic events throughout the State, with which you are familiar.

The men of these posts make no charge for their services at any celebration or event of patriotic or civic nature, but they are compelled under the laws of our Commonwealth to buy an automobile license at a cost of sixty-five dollars. Under existing conditions that is a hardship on these posts, in view of the fact that they are contributing their services, effort and time in promoting patriotism, a virtue that unfortunately is woefully lacking in our country at this time.

I think it is fit and proper that we should eliminate this charge, in view of the fact that we have the three outstanding bands in the American Legion in the United States. The particular organizations that this bill is framed for now have competed in national contests throughout the United States and have won contests, and unusual and distinct honors.

As I say, I think that it is fitting and proper we should eliminate this charge on their automobile plates.

I ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1274, entitled:

An Act authorizing a divorced wife to resume her maiden or other name used before marriage in certain cases.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, would the sponsor of this bill be kind enough to explain its provisions?

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Melchiorre, desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long?

Mr. MELCHIORRE. No, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to explain, at least in a word attempt to explain the provisions of this bill to the gentleman who is causing all this confusion down in the front of the House. Such success as I may obtain is altogether uncertain. I will pursue that attempt, however, although it may be, I fear, a vain one.

The purpose of this bill is to allow a divorced woman, in cases where there are no children, to make application to the court for leave to use her maiden name.

Now, may I ask the Speaker if I may interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MELCHIORRE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia with what success I have met in my explanation to him.

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Not so good, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LONG. Did the gentleman understand any part of my explanation?

Mr. MELCHIORRE. A little bit, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr Long, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, do I understand from this bill that if anybody in this House happens to date up a divorcee, she can give any name she disposes so to give?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I do not know what effect it might have on the other members of the House. I leave that up entirely to the gentleman from Montgomery.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1051, entitled:

An Act to amend section seven of the act, approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 719), entitled "An act regulating certain political parties; providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices, the election of delegates and alternate delegates to national party conventions, and of certain party officers, including State committeemen; a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States; and the payment by the several counties, and their reimbursement by the State, of the expenses of the same; authorizing the State committee of a political party to make, and to alter, amend, and revoke rules; and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act, and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein; and repealing inconsistent legislation," as amended; by increasing the number of signers required for certain nomination petitions.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LONG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia state what is the purpose of increasing the number of signers for nominating petitions?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been presented to meet a situation which we have in Philadelphia at the present time. We are compelled to use voting machines, and those voting machines can only take care of nine candidates. We are approaching an election now, where we have to elect about seventeen magistrates in the city of Philadelphia. It is calculated or estimated that we will have about two hundred candidates for that office. We are also about to elect six judges for our municipal court, and it is estimated that we will have about fifty candidates for that office. So, in order to facilitate the use of the voting machines, we are asking that the number of signers to nominating papers or petitions be increased.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if this bill takes in the whole State?

Mr. LONG. It does, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, would it not have been possible to have amended this bill so as to take in only cities of the first-class and thus exempt the rest of the State from this burden of getting this increased number of signatures?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I could not answer that question, because I have not considered it.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems to me that it is unfair to place such a burden on the rest of the State simply to remedy a situation that seems to exist only in the City of Philadelphia. I believe that there should be a remedy of some other kind, and for that reason I am asking you to oppose this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, in order to meet the wishes of the gentleman from Berks in this matter, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in figuring the salaries under this bill we utilized the figures for salaries as required under the Act of 1929. Major Adams has pointed out to me that the salary paid to State Police is in excess of the amount required under the Act of 1929. Pending an investigation of that and the authority for the present pay, because we do not desire to cut any further than the uniform cut we are making all along the line, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 141, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two and three, section four as amended, sections seven and eight, and section nine as amended of the act, approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1780), entitled "An act to fix the salaries and compensation of the judges of Supreme Court, the judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, the judges of the orphans' courts, the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, and the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County," by reducing the salaries of judges.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS TO SIT DURING SESSION OF THE HOUSE

Mr. WITKIN asked and obtained unanimous consent of the House for the Committee on Ways and Means to sit during the session of the House to consider House Bills Nos. 1865, 1866 and 376. The Committee met immediately in the House Caucus Room.

HOUSE BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1580, entitled:

An Act empowering and directing the State Emergency Relief Board to establish, operate and maintain camps in or adjacent to State forest lands to shelter unmarried, unemployed men and homeless and migratory men and youths, and to employ such men and youths in useful labor; and making an appropriation to carry this act into effect.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as I understand it, this bill provides that the Emergency Relief Board may put men to work in camps in the forests of this State and for that work they shall be paid wages not exceeding the very large sum of five dollars per month. I do not believe that this House wants to fix as a standard of wages a sum not exceeding five dollars per month

I want to call your particular attention to the fact that the bill does not say that they shall be paid five dollars per month, but that they may be paid wages not exceeding five dollars per month.

I submit that to pay people to work at such wages is going to drive down wages throughout the Commonwealth, and I ask the members of the House not to support any such measure. Work relief is all right if the people are paid decent wages, but five dollars per month or, at least, a sum not exceeding five dollars per month, is not decent wages, and putting people to work at that standard, and taking the work away from those who might be paid a decend standard, and asking men to work for that sum is bound to drive down the standard of wages through this State.

I ask the members of the House to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. RICE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have a very heavy cold and my voice is not in condition to say what I would like to say about this bill tonight.

I would like to inform the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, that the five dollar wage is only for homeless and migratory men, that the provisions is made in this bill for the Emergency Relief Board to hire unemployed men in the vicinity of the camps, and that the wage they shall receive is left entirely to the discretion of this Board.

As I said before, because of a very heavy cold, and because there are other things that I would like to say about this bill which I cannot say and so there may be no misunderstanding about it, and as I think it is a very important piece of legislation I am going to ask to have it placed on the postponed calendar.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. RICE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the sportsmen of my county, by letter and telegram, have requested me to call the attention of the House to this bill and to ask the members of the House to defeat it. This is a bill opening the way for an automatic gun in hunting, something that the laws of this State have hitherto discountenanced. It provides for the supposed plug gun arrangment—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. EDERER. The gentleman is speaking on the wrong bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, is advised that the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ederer, says that the gentleman from Cambria is speaking on the wrong bill and is talking about a bill that is to come up subsequently.

Does the gentleman from Cambria understand that we are now considering House Bill No. 314, Printers No. 599?

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker, is this House Bill No. 314, we are now considering?

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the sportsmen of Allegheny County are soliciting the members of this House to vote "no" on this bill, and I ask the members of the House to grant their request.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ederer, to turn to this bill in his calendar and see if the correct printers' number, namely, No. 599, is given for this bill.

Mr. EDERER. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Montgomery states that the proper printers' number is No. 599, as it appears on the calendar.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Beech, who has just taken exception to this bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Beech, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BEECH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman mind stating to this House the objection that the sportsmen of Allegheny County have to this bill?

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker, I will read their request. "House Bill No. 314, by Mr. Ederer, from Montgomery, the sportsmen feel that this bill would benefit no one but the pot-hunters, and no sportsman wants someone else to shoot his deer for him." I ask that this bill be opposed.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Allegheny is speaking about House Bill No. 314 as it was erroneously drawn by the Legislative Reference Bureau. It has since been amended to overcome that objection.

As this bill was originally drawn, as I have said, Mr. Speaker, erroneously by the Legislative Reference Bureau, it provided that one man could kill more than one deer. That was not my intent in offering this act. My intent in offering this bill was to provide that a man could assist in driving after killing a deer in camp, an act which is now done in every deer camp in the State of Pennsylvania. At the present time, if you happen to be connected with a deer camp and happen to be fortunate enough to kill your deer within an hour, or two hours, or within the first day, after you have been hunting, according to the law of our Commonwealth you are not allowed to assist any further in driving or assisting to kill deer. Under this bill that portion of the act is clarified and allows you to do what is being done at the present time in every deer camp in Pennsylvania. If you have killed your deer you are permitted under this act to continue, not to kill more deer, but to continue to assist in driving and thus help the rest of the fellows in your camp to get their deer.

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if the members of the House will turn to their file and read the section in which this amendment appears, I think the language is such that it is perfectly clear that the explanation of the gentleman from Montgomery will be looked upon as being correct.

I feel that this amendment to the act is one that ought to be supported by the membership of this House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Haines, suggests that the members of this House turn to their files and read the amendment in question.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ederer.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ederer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDERER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Montgomery whether after having killed his deer and while assisting the other men in camp a man will be permitted to carry his rifle?

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, a gentleman assisting in driving at the present time is permitted to carry his rifle and under this act he is still permitted to carry his rifle although he is not permitted to kill a second deer.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1205, entitled:

An Act exempting household furniture and household goods leased, hired or conditionally sold from levy and sale on execution or distress for rent.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if I interpret this bill correctly I think this bill is taking away from the property owners of this state a right which every one concedes they ought to have, that is, the control of their own building. If this bill is passed it will not be necessary for an installment house to notify the owner of the premises before their property is placed in there that they are not subject to attachment for rent. They can do the same thing at the present time if they will ask the landlord to sign a waiver, which they are willing to do in most cases, but it seems to me that we ought not to take away from the property owners of this state that right which they now enjoy.

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time from page 17 of today's calender, House Bill No. 95, Printer's No. 619, bill on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. John L. Holmes,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 95, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred seventy-nine) entitled "An act to fix the salary and mileage of the members of the General Assembly and to provide for the furnishing of such postage stationery and supplies as may be necessary for the conduct of their offices and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith" as amended decreasing the compensation of members of the General Assembly and the amount they shall receive for postage and mileage

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, this bill is not on the postponed calendar. If this bill has been put on the postponed calendar I am unable to find it on the postponed calendar.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, is advised that this bill was placed on the postponed calendar a few minutes ago. Therefor, the Chair rules that the bill is on the postponed calendar.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before you is House Bill No. 95, Printer's No. 619. It provides for a reduction in the salary of the members of the Legislature from three thousand to twenty-five hundred dollars and from one hundred and fifty dollars to one hundred dollars for postage.

An erroneous impression has gone forth all over the Commonwealth that coming to the Legislature is like going to a joy party, that there is no labor and it is just simply one grand merry-go-round. I want to tell you that no more erroneous impression could exist than that. I will recite to you just my own labors. I got up at 7.00 o'clock Monday morning, and I travelled to Harrisburg, and I went to work with one of the committees, and I went to work with the session Monday night, and when the session adjourned I went on a conference committee and worked until 6.00 o'clock in the morning. I had two and a half hours sleep, and started to work on committees the next day and worked the whole day long, was in the House until late and then there was another committee meeting and I think I got to bed about 2.30 in the morning. I was up rather early this morning and started the same procedure over again. Today we are now working after twelve o'clock midnight. No hod carrier, no laborer of any kind, type or description works half as hard as we do during the time that we are here. We carry a great deal of responsibility, we carry on our shoulders many worries and many cares, and we have to take many kicks, and other little things for what we do and what we don't do.

But let us think of something else, why this bill should not pass. This is the real reason why I say to you that it should not pass. When the salary of the members of the Legislature was raised some years ago to three thousand dollars the value of the dollar was probably from fifty to sixty cents of what its value is today. Is there anybody that can predict what its value is going to be tomorrow? Everyone has common knowledge of the fact that the United States government is doing everything within its power to get possession of all the gold, and do you think they are doing that merely as an idle gesture? Does it not appear to you that when the gold goes into the possession of the government and under its control that in a short time afterwards some percentage of the gold in the gold dollar will be abstracted from it and purchasing power of it diminished? Probably that is right. I think it is right that it should be done, but when you reduce a salary from three thousand dollars to twenty-five hundred dollars you are not reducing it to twenty-five hundred dollars as dollars exist today, but you are reducing it to twenty-five hundred dollars as dollars are going to be tomorrow, and I doubt that the present value of the dollar will continue more than sixty days.

If I were the President of the United States, with the power that he has, I would not wait that long to reduce the value of the dollar. It is fair to the debtors of this nation that the value of the dollar should be depreciated.

I ask you ladies and gentlemen, with these facts within the scope of your knowledge, not to vote for this bill, because voting for it will mean that at the next session—we may not be here, but the members who comes here next session will not get twenty-five hundred dollars as dollars are today but twenty-five hundred dollars that will be worth maybe only seventy-five cent on the dollar.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems to me that it is the height of inconsistency for us to ask all the other state employes from the Governor on down to take a cut of approximately the same percentage as we have fixed in this particular bill.

The argument of the gentleman from Philadelphia is predicated on the idea that the dollar may have a different value two years from now, or a year from now, but we are asking the state officials and other employes to put themselves in the very same position of taking chances upon the fluctuation of the value of the dollar.

I not only think that we should pass this bill, but I think we should show our willingness to do what we are asking every one else to do, and that is to take a cut in our own salaries for this particular session. We certainly can not justify ourselves when we are asking all the employes from the Governor down to take a cut when we do not follow that example ourselves.

There is no basis for defense for opposing this bill, and I can see no justification for voting against this bill. The cut in this particular bill is no greater than every one else is asked to take and every one else is taking at the present time. The Howell resolution, as passed by the Senate, provides for a cut of twenty per cent all the way down to those getting seven hundred and fifty dollars a year. That is the exemption in that bill, and it seems to me that we should go before the people and say that we are willing to do ourselves what we have asked every one else to do.

I, therefore, hope you will vote for this bill.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I thoroughly agree with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, that the members of this Legislature are not overpaid. I realize that we have to go through a primary campaign, we have to go through a general campaign, and we are held up for a period of two years by charities and anything else that comes down the line, but the fact remains that we have entered upon an economy program.

The cuts in this particular bill are slightly higher than those in the Sterling report. I feel that while we are not overpaid, yet we can not consistently carry out our economy program if we do not share in it ourselves. In order to be consistent and in order to show good faith to the people and taxpayers of Pennsylvania, I feel that we should vote for this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, because I do not ever expect to be a member of this Assembly again——

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman singing his swan song?

Mr. ANDREWS. Yet, sir, Mr. Speaker, I consider it that.

I have listened to the gentleman from Philadelphia and my heart bleeds for him. I have listened to the gentleman from Berks who is very much perturbed about the finances in the next biennium, and who you all heard, when I asked him the question on the floor of this House as to whether or not he was opposed to the principle of sacrificing some of the present salary during the present period when the Treasury is embarrassed, say "Yes, surely I am opposed."

The members of this House are not overpaid. I have known members of this House who have been worth a million dollars to the State of Pennsylvania, and I have known groups of members that have cost it tens of millions of dollars.

The Speaker of this House is not overpaid. The Speaker of this House at the present time would not be overpaid at five thousand dollars, he would not be overpaid at ten thousand dollars.

There are members of this House who are worth ten thousand dollars; there are members of this House who are not worth three dollars.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman desist and give a bill of particulars?

Mr. ANDREWS. I think the Chair is worth all of three dollars.

Now let us face this issue squarely. The members of this House in ordinary times, in ordinary periods, are not overpaid. Three thousand dollars in normal times is too little, but it is a shame and a disgrace for the members of this House to be so generous with the money of their successors and so penurious with their own possessions, because now, in this period, in this biennium, is the time when the people of Pennsylvania are turning to us for relief. I am willing to sacrifice now. I am not willing to reduce the salaries of the members of the next Legislature, because I believe that if we would set an example by sacrificing now that when the next Legislature convenes, if we continue in present conditions, that our successors would be as generous and as patriotic as we are.

These are some of the reasons I am going to vote against this bill and some of the reasons why I would welcome the occasion, the opportunity, to vote for a pact pledging all of the members of this House to make the sacrifices that have been already inferentially imposed upon the teachers and upon all of the other employes of this government.

It is sheer hypocrisy, Mr. Speaker, for this House seriously to face this bill with every opportunity to sacrifice themselves evaded.

I hope the House will vote this measure down, and then I hope the House will have the courage themselves to take a cut now, when the cut is needed.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I agree with the gentleman from Cambria on all of his points except the one in which he says "We should not vote in favor of this bill." I agree with him that we should take a cut ourselves in this session.

I have advocated, as you members well know from the length of time you have suffered with me on this floor, economies in the State government and economies to be effected now

I have advocated and done my best to push all and every resolution, House Bill No. 22 and other measures, for reductions in salaries of employes of our State government, and I would not feel that I was justified in doing that were I not willing to use every bit of my endeavor to cut my own salary here in this Legislature. I have been willing, and I am ready today to take my fair share of the cut in this session, although I feel that I, no more than any other member of this House, can afford to give any money to the State unless it is absolutely necessary.

It is not a logical situation in which we find ourselves. The argument of the gentleman from Philadelphia might be fine on another occasion. This is a situation in which we must cut the cloth to meet the exigencies of the occasion. I think I pointed out to you only yesterday that we are going to be called back within the next six months and perhaps in the next six months in the period after that with the problem of raising more money and cutting down wherever we possibly can cut. It is necessary for us to cut now and cut in this biennium as well as in the next. This bill affects the next biennium and will have its effects upon the appropriation bill in the next biennium. While it is true we are legislating for those who come after us, for those men who will come here in 1935, the money must be provided for in the appropriation bill that is now before you and which goes into effect on June 1, 1933.

I came to this Legislature when the salary of the members was twenty-five hundred dollars. I voted for the increase in the salary to three thousand dollars, and I agree with the gentleman from Cambria that the members are not overpaid. They do their work and perform their part, every man and woman earns the three thousand dollars paid them as a salary.

If we are to set an example we certainly can not go before the people of this State, and I think every member will be ashamed to go back to his constituents at the end of this session, unless we can say we have not only reduced the salaries of the State employes, in order that we may balance the budget, in order that we might find the money we are going to need for the necessities of the State of Pennsylvania, and can say that we were willing to take our cuts whether we believed they were justified or not.

I say to you members of this House that I hope you will vote in favor of this measure.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would be ashamed after all I have had to do in the line of work in my committee as chairman of the Committee on Education, to stand before the House and urge you to put the school boards in a position where they may cut the teachers and refrain from lifting my voice on this floor and urging the members of the House to take the same position with their own salaries.

These cuts will come in the same biennium that we have authorized the school boards to cut the eight hundred dollar teachers. We have by our vote in this House authorized the school boards to cut the teachers who get eight hundred dollars, and I would be ashamed if I did not raise my voice in this case and say that we should take our cuts in the same biennium that the school teachers take theirs.

The schools of Pennsylvania are going to be closed, not one hundred, not two hundred, not three hundred, but five, six or seven hundred, because we do not have enough money for the biennium we are now facing.

I say that the members of the House should take their own cuts along with the members that we are cutting by our vote in this House.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, of course, under this bill we are not discussing the salaries of the members during this session. That matter is provided for under the Howell resolution which, as most of the members of the House know, provides for a cut of two hundred and forty dollars in our salaries this session.

Personally I shall vote for this bill, but I should like to call the attention of the House to the bill of Senator Reed, on page 33 of today's calendar, Senate Bill No. 58. Under this bill the Senate has already expressed its desire as to the salaries for the next session, and under this Reed bill a reduction of three hundred dollars, or ten per cent, has been provided. Under the Holmes bill the reduction is five hundred dollars. The question before us is whether we will permit the Reed bill to pass this House or defeat the Reed bill and send the Holmes bill to the Senate. The Senate has given us its expression. It is now for us to decide which of these two bills we are going to accept.

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I will agree with much that has been said here tonight. I would correct one error in the statement made relative to the postage.

This bill was originally written calling for a cut of one cent per mile on the mileage and five dollars on the postage. It has been amended so that the mileage and postage have not been reduced.

I acknowldge that many of the members of this House are worth more than three thousand dollars. I could pick out a number of men who are of greater value to the State of Pennsylvania, and I honestly believe that many of the men are paying a price which is far beyond that which can be calculated in dollars and cents. I honestly believe that the empty chair in our presence tonight was brought about and the hasty death was caused by reason of the fact that that man was willing to put something into this House beyond what he got out of the House.

The reason that this bill was introduced, I want to give you an example of what is going on: even tonight in the papers we got a jab about not reducing our salaries. When this bill was introduced one of the leading papers in my county said that the bill had as much chance of succeeding as a salesman would have of selling Frigidaires in Alaska, and went on to say other unkind things about the members of the Legislature.

I believe we owe it to the people of Pennsylvania to show them that we are going to arise above selfish interests and that we are going to establish a higher standard of ethics in this House. We are not legislating for this present membership. I am willing to take a cut in my own personal salary. I can stay at home if I don't want to come back the next time at twenty-five hundred dollars. I do not believe that in legislation, as well as in many other vocations, that service increases with salary.

In order that we may square ourselves with the people of Pennsylvania I ask the members of this House to rise above self and say we are willing to make some sacrifices. In other words, I will be glad when I go home if I can go to my office and travel the streets of my native town instead of through the alleys, which I will be compelled to do if we do not make some sacrifices here in the House in our salaries.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. I am not a constitutional lawyer, but if I were one I would call attention to the fact that the title of this bill is incorrect and I would move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, in the title of this bill it says "As amended decreasing the compensation of members of the General Assembly and the amount they shall receive for postage and mileage." This bill has been amended so that it does not decrease the postage and the mileage and therefore the title does not agreewith the bill.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to urge upon the members of the House to vote this down. This is a subterfuge. On the floor of this House tonight we had a bill of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Baldi, in which the lines were transposed and the House allowed that bill to go through on his statement that it would be corrected in the Senate. We are going to put ourselves in a false position.

I say to the ladies and gentlemen of the House that it is all right for the members who have an organization that stands back of them and what they do, but the ladies and gentlemen from the country do not have that advantage and your constituents will judge you by whether you are willing to take a cut yourselves and lower your salaries when you have lowered those of the state employes.

This motion is merely a subterfuge to get this bill out of the way. I ask the House to have courage enough to vote the motion down. Let us face the issue right now.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from McKean if he is a member of the bar?

Mr. WILSON. I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if in the opinion of the gentleman this bill, as it is now drawn and appears upon the calendar, is constitutional or unconstitutional?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I have not examined it with that in view, but it is just as good as a number of other bills that were passed through this House without the least objection. If this did not affect our salaries the objections, I do not think, would be raised.

The SPEAKER. The Chair advises the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, that the Chair, in turn, has been advised that the bill is defective in title, but not constitutionally so by the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, Mr. Fertig, for the reason that it provides more than is necessary in the original title.

Mr. WILSON. I now ask the gentleman from York if he is a member of the bar?

Mr. COHEN. I am. Mr. Speaker, I feel that in view of the fact that aspersions were cast on all of the members of this House, in wishing to evade what is their duty and what they feel is their compunction at the present timeto take the same amount of decrease as every other unit in the state is expected to take, nevertheless, I feel it would be more compatible if we were to pass the Reed bill which has already passed the Senate and which is an expression of the desire of the Senate.

When the gentleman from McKan intimates that it is only a subterfuge on our part to pass this bill,' I wish to retaliate by pointing out to him that it is only a subterfuge at the present time to have this bill passed. The Senate has already——

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York will refrain from reflections upon another member.

Mr. COHEN. The Senate has aready intimated what they will do and what they will take. Undoubtedly in the Senate when the Reed bill was under discussion for the purpose of considering greater and smaller cuts, they did decide upon what they would take. I feel sure that this House would be only too glad to go along with the Senate, and I therefore feel that the motion to recommit this bill, or to put the bill upon the postponed calendar should be agreed to so that we can go along with the Senate, and therefore put the bill in a position to be signed by the Governor.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, after listening to the debate, I want to suggest to the members of the House that I think the policy we should pursue now is to put this bill on the postponed calendar and approve the Senate bill. If we fail to approve the Senate bill and our bill goes over to the Senate and they fail to approve it, then the salary still remains at three thousand dollars. I am not even impressed with the twenty-seven hundred dollars, but after listening to the argument I will recede from my position of three thousand dollars and go along with the Senate bill, and I ask the members to put the bill on the postponed calendar and ask permission to call up the Senate bill immediately.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia consent to go along with an effort to make both the Howell resolution and this bill a special order of business for——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the interrogation by the gentleman from Cambria is out of order as it does not pertain to the bill under discussion.

The SPEAKER. And the Chair so rules.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not a preacher or a criterion to try and inspire you as to what action should be taken on this bill. We have been here deliberating and passing laws since the first Monday of this year. The majority of our time has been spent in formulating and discussing laws that are primarily based on economy for this commonwealth.

We have been the subject of a great deal of criticism, House Bill No. 22 being almost brutally assaulted by some of those who talked the longest in a frothy manner, if you will, about economy. I saw the forces of this House being remarshalled, strategy and tactics being adopted to put across successfully that bill. I am happy to say that I stood for House Bill No. 22, losing and winning, and I am glad to say that I have lived and been here to see in yesterday morning's "Public Ledger" a splendid, comprehensive, intelligent, highly educational and thoroughly appreciative editorial on House Bill No. 22 that this body once condemned.

We are in a perculiar position, and I say, without any rancor or any criticism, that the Chief Executive of this state has once more played us into a position of "Be damned if you do, and be damned if you don't," and you and I, ladies and gentlemen of this House, tonight are sitting in the position of having the cynic's ban hurled at you from the house on the side of the hill. There should be no subterfuge, there should be no pussyfooting, there should be no equivication, there should be no ambiguity.

The members of this House tonight from nothing but sheer, ordinary self respect, in conformity and harmony with you and I and the excellent leaders, have done a gigantic task in conformity and out of appreciation of that task, I can say that there are men in this House, whom I could name, that are worth ten thousand dollars a year, which my colleague Mr. Andrews mentioned. But there is no necessity for distinctions. Every man and woman here has toiled faithfully during this season. Let us not put ourselves in a position of being ridiculed here in Harrisburg and over the hills and valleys of this great state, from Lake Erie to where the Delaware River leaves the shores of Philadelphia, I ask you and I ask those who opposed the economies of House Bill No. 22, to vote now, as they are handling their own destinies, to at least be honest with themselves, who could not be honest with the men who spent their days and nights and Sundays in drafting, arranging, promulgating, constructing, rectifying and creating House Bill No.22. Men, be men or mice. Vote for this bill, I hope unanimously, and take the cut that is coming to us that we have given everybody else and let us not put ourselves in the position of being laughed at to scorn. I ask you to support this measure and to vote down the motion.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think we are only trying to fool ourselves in this debate when we endeavor to postpone action on this particular bill and take up the Reed bill that has passed the Senate. The Reed bill, when it passed the Senate, provided for a reduction of five hundred dollars and it was amended here in the House committee to twenty-seven hundred dollars, a reduction of three hundred dollars. The Senate has indicated its willingness and its desire to have this reduction of five hundred dollars in the Reed bill, and it was only when it reached the House that it was changed from five hundred to three hundred dollars. Therefore, let us be fair and pass this bill and send it back to the Senate——

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ederer, the Chair announces that a motion carried on the previous question will bring us back to the main question, which is; shall the bill pass finally and not on the motion to postpone. Does the gentleman still insist upon his motion?

Mr. EDERER. I still insist upon the motion for the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Haines, Baker, Laubach, Forrest, Heffernan, Conner, Wilson, Wood, DeFrehn, Woodside, Shreiner, Rice, Surface, John L. Holmes, Sheffer, Yeakel, Ruby, Reilly, Bennett, Baldi and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FIRST READING

Mr. EDERER asked and obtained unanimous consent to have House Bill No. 1866 read for the first time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1866, entitled:

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, it is strange indeed that this bill should designate but three classes of counties in the Commonwealth. If it is a good bill it ought to apply to all the counties of the Commonwealth or none, in my judgment, and I would like to send it back for the purpose of amending it so that it will include the other classes of counties.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, there is, of course, good reasoning in the argument that if this is a good bill it ought to apply to all of the sixty-seven counties of the Commonwealth, rather than to the sixth, seventh and eighth class counties only; but, Mr. President, I am anxious to get that bill through for the counties I represent, and I fear it would be impossible to get it through for the whole state. It will effect amazing savings in Cumberland county. It cost us $45,059 in 1930 to collect our taxes—I have those figures from the Internal Revenue Department yesterday—and it will save at least that much in all of these counties. I would like to accommodate the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, but I hate to risk defeat of the bill, with its benefit for the sixth class counties and the seventh and eighth class counties, and, at the same time, lose out for them all.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to reply to the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, in this respect: If we were satisfied that all the taxes would come in to the county treasurer without any designation in the various sections of the county of others to represent the county treasurer I could see the force of his argument, but in these days of depression and the inability of the taxpayers to pay, and the granting them the privilege of paying their taxes in installments, and even then getting a very meager proportion of the taxes from them, it does seem to me to be the wrong time to change the system.

I am not disputing the fact that it has, in the past, cost too much in certain instances; but I cannot see the saving that would be affected in these times, when the tax collectors cannot colect the taxes, to have the county treasurer try to collect them—and then parcel out over the county sub-collectors to also try to collect them. I do not that this kind of legislation should go through. If it is so good, we should stand up for it and have it applied to all the counties; but I think it is the wrong time to apply it to any of the counties, and for that reason I should like to see the bill go back to committee.

Frankly, I am not for the bill; but if it is a good bill I do not see why the counties in these three lower brackets—the sixth, seventh and eighth classes—should be singled out, passing over the larger counties where the county treasurer can collect a big sum of money, and perhaps does, and save for the county a sizeable amount. I think it is the wrong time. If people were not distressed in the paying of their taxes I think it might be a good thing to change the system, but under the present circumstances I would like to see this bill go back to committee.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I regret to have to differ with my colleague from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson. The Association of County Commissioners is firmly in back of this bill because they believe the savings that can be derived from the collection of taxes by the County Treasurer will more than offset any argument that might be proposed in the path of the tax collectors all over Pennsylvania. I have a sixth class county in my district, and the people of my district are heartily in back of this bill; and I hope the Senate will vote for this bill.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, do the county commissioners go on record as being in favor of applying this to all the counties of the Commonwealth?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, the Association of County Commissioners is behind this bill as drafted.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, has not answered my question. I asked, did they go on record as favoring all the taxes, in all the different grades of counties, to be collected that way, or did they single out these three: the sixth, seventh and eighth class counties?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, they have endorsed the bill as written.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would ask, did they go further and endorse the bill as to the other counties?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, why should they endorse the bill with respect to other counties when there is nothing in the bill to take care of the other counties?

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I answer that query by saying I presume that at the time the County Commissioners met they passed some sort of a resolution, and that this bill was not then in being—I presume that is so. I would ask the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, when the County Commissioners Association did meet?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I am sorry to have to differ with my friend, the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson. The representatives of the county commissioners were here in Harrisburg on several occasions, appealing for the passage of this bill. I ask the Senators to vote for this bill.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would further ask the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, if they were here in the interest of having the bill prepared for all the counties of the Commonwealth, or if they wanted it for the three classes of counties only.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, there was nothing before this body of the County Commissioners Association but the bill as it was drafted.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, is very adroit and very evasive. I am asking him a direct question—

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, in reply to the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, I cannot answer whether they were in favor of having the bill apply to fourth or fifth class counties. There is nothing in this bill except to take care of sixth, seventh and eight class counties. Therefore, I am in no position to say whether the County Commissioners Association were interested in the first, second, third, fourth or fifth class counties.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to instruct the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, a little bit. I have here a list of the commissions paid per annum to the various local tax collectors. I do not know in which classes the counties are, but it is very illuminating. It reads as follows:

Now, the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, certainly ought to be willing to support the bill of the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, in order to correct this evil, and not let these men pull down all this money for doing practically nothing. Why, in Hanover Township a man gets $17,000 for endorsing three checks.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would ask whether the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, knows if the county in which Hanover Township is located is included in this bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, Hanover Township is located in Luzerne County, which is a third class county.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, that is the county of the Senator's nativity, is it not?

This is a strange hook-up between Senator Scott and Senator Woodward. Somebody is being benefited by this hook-up. It is not for me to say who, nor can I say who it is; but, Mr. President, I would like to say again to the members of this Senate that this is the wrong time to change our system of tax collecting. It certainly is the wrong time to single out three of the counties of this Commonwealth to put a good measure over, and then publish broadcast, throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that we do not have the courage to do our full duty and apply this good law to all the counties of the Commonwealth. I do not want to discriminate.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I represent a district in which there is a sixth, a seventh and an eighth class county, and I want to say to the members of this Senate that I believe the people of my district are for this bill, not only from the standpoint of the saving which will result, but I want to call the Senate's attention to the fact that in many of the local counties of this State today it is almost impossible to get a collector to serve who is able to give a bond, and I know of many districts where they have no collector today to collect the taxes.

I think this will result in a great saving. I think it is a step in the right direction, and I hope the Senate will pass this bill.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I think that, personally, I have the same amount of interest in this bill that the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, has; but I do want to reply to a suggestion made by him, to the effect that a bill of this character should cover all of Pennsylvania. We classify practically every subject, and I think we all will agree to the wisdom of the doctrine of classification. A bill which is a good bill in a sixth, seventh or eight class county is not necessarily wise legislation for a first class county or a second class county. It seems to me, therefore, that the only logical way to approach this question is on the principle of classification; and, therefore, I hope that the members of the Senate will vote on this bill with respect to the needs of sixth, seventh and eighth class counties.

The statement has been made by the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, that the Association of County Commissioners favor this bill, and, based on that argument, and after reading the bill and believing, since the amendments came in yesterday, that the bill represents sound legislation, I intend to vote for the bill.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the last speaker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, whether he stands ready to vote for a bill that will relieve the coal counties, for instance, Luzerne County, and will vote for a similar bill for his own county, the county of Dauphin, in the class in which it stands.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I have never dodged that question, and do not intend to dodge it at this session. If that same bill were introduced for Dauphin County, that is, for fourth class counties, at this session, I should vote "no."

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to call attention to the fact that on page 4, line 27, of the bill, there was inadvertently omitted the brackets which should be placed around the word "when" in the copy on the member's desks this morning. I took this up with Mr. Fertig's office and was advised by him that they should be there. It is my thought that this bill should be passed. Otherwise, unless House Bill No. 1374 passes, there is no way in which any salary of any teacher or other employe of the department can be reduced.

This bill is before us after careful hearing on several occasions, and there was no haste in the consideration of this bill, I assure you, in the Committee on Education. Legislation is a matter of give and take, very often of compromise; and I would like the unanimous consent of the Senate to act on this bill this morning, and to have the understanding that brackets are to be inserted in the reprinting of the bill and after the word "when," on page 4, line 27; and with that understanding, Mr. President, I ask that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of this bill.

An Act relating to unemployment relief; making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct relief and work relief; prescribing the powers and duties of the board with reference thereto; and conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain State departments.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I want to take a few moments of the time of the Senate to express my position with respect to this bill. To my mind this bill is clearly unconstitutional. On December 8, 1931, when the first Talbot bill was before the House of Representatives I made a statement giving the different positions maintained by the Attorney General and the Legislative Reference Bureau with respect to that bill. I then stated:

"I have here and would like to state a summary of the differences in the two positions. On this question the Attorney General says substantially there can be no direct relief, because there is no governmental duty on the State, and it is thus unconstitutional as a charity to use State money for the relief of the unemployed, who during the present crisis are unable to support themselves; the State cannot legally provide direct relief to the unemployed in need. The Legislative Reference Bureau, in answer to the same question, says 'Yes,' and the proposition is substantially this, because there is a governmental duty on the State, it is not unconstitutional as a charity to use State money for the relief of all those who during the present unemployment crisis are unable to support themselves; the State, therefore, can legally provide direct relief to all the poor, including the unemployed in need.

"The legal principle underlying the opinion of the Attorney General is that if the State selects a particular class—the aged or the unemployed—from the whole poor class, and appropriates money for their support, it discriminates and grants a charity. The Legislative Reference Bureau takes the position: If the State does not select a particular class, but appropriates money for the support of all the poor, it does not discriminate, but protects public health, safety and welfare, and does not grant a charity."

I also want to call attention to the very able brief prepared by former United States Senator George Wharton Pepper, in which he stated:

"The Supreme Court has decided that an appropriation to an agency or institution for administering old-age pension is in fact an appropriation to the individual pensioners and, as such, prohibited by the constitutional provision against appropriations to 'persons.'" And in support of his position Senator Pepper cited the case of Busser v. Snyder, 282 Pa. 440.

I call your attention to the fact that the present bill, in section 4, provides: "The amount available in any county over and above the sum set aside by the State Emergency Relief Board for work relief shall be available for expenditure for the purchase of food, clothing, fuel and shelter for the unemployed in such county through such public and private agencies as shall be designated by the State Emergency Relief Board and under such rules and regulations as the Board shall adopt."

To my mind no more flagrant violation of the Constitution of Pennsylvania could be set in an act of Assembly than that. It is clearly an appropriation to certain designated individuals. I am calling your attention to this fact, as I am informed by the public press that these emergency bills are being dictated from the Governor's office, and I presume that the Governor is acting under the advice of his Attorney General. The position taken, if this bill is constitutional, is, in my judgment, directly in conflict not only with the opinion of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvnia but is in direct conflict with the position that Attorney General Schnader maintained a year ago. To my mind there is no more pressing question than the question of unemployment relief. The public press of Pennsylvania has been censuring this Legislature severely for inaction, and therefore in spite of the fact that to my mind this act is clearly unconstitutional, I intend to vote for it. If there is any chance to get money to our people in need, I am not going to be the one to throw a stone in the pathway of effectuating that beneficent purpose; but I do call attention to this fact, that to my mind the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in the case of Commonwealth v. Liverright, blazes a pathway which is clear of constitutional difficulties, that is, to provide relief as was done in the original Talbot bill, and any other method such as is suggested in this bill is certainly of very questional constitutionality.

Having made this statement and awaiting with interest the position which the Attorney General of Pennsylvania will take with regard to this bill in view of the position he took a year ago, I shall vote "aye" on this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1030, on third reading, entitled

An Act to amend sections three and six as amended of and to add section three and one-tenth to the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1046), entitled "An act appropriating the moneys in the Motor License Fund," transferring the appropriation for the State Highway Patrol from the Department of Revenue to the Pennsylvania State Police; and making the same a definite amount for each biennium.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCLURE. Yes, Mr. President, I will.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, reading over this bill, it seems to me that it actually is working to the abolition of the State Highway Patrol as a separate unit and merging that into the State Police. Is that correct?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, this bill provides for an appropriation to the Department of the State Police, and if the Patrol is placed in that Department, it will be benefited. I understand there is a bill in the Legislature, probably in the House, House Bill No. 22, which transfers the State Highway Patrol to the State Police.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, the State Patrol to the State Police.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, if that bill fails, of course this bill would fall. This is simply an emergency bill to take care of that situation if the Legislature makes the transfer.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Would the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, have any objection to this bill going over in order to wait and see what disposition will be made of House Bill No. 22?

Mr. McClure. Mr. President, I would like to see this bill passed today. This is a Senate bill, and if there is any thought of adjourning next week, if this bill would be delayed for a time it might not pass at all.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, so the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, is not of a mind to agree to having it placed on the postponed calendar or go over in order?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I cannot agree. If it is to go over the Senate will not have an opportunity to vote for the transfer of the Patrol to the Department of State Police.

Mr .STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, since I began interrogating the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, the Senator from Center, Mr. Scott, has communicated to me that he is of the opinion that this bill abolishes the State Highway Patrol.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, this will not abolish the State Highway Patrol.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, if House Bill No. 22 goes through and if this bill is passed, the Highway Patrol will be abolished as a separate and distinct unit, will it not?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, it will be under the State Police.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, then we will have all State Police?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the Motor Patrol will be a Bureau under the State Police.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, it will be a Bureau under the State Police, but we will not have such a thing as the Motor Patrolmen with separate and distinct duties as they now have and State Policemen with separate and distinct duties. The reason I want this clear is that the Bill affects our section of the State very vitally and might well be amended to take care of this matter; and if there is an intention to abolish the State Highway Patrol and to place them all under the heading of State Police and have them perform the duties that are now performed by the State Police, I certainly would have to interpose serious objections to the passing of this bill.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the intention of the bill is to take this unit from Highway Patrol and place it under the State Police.

The PRESIDENT. Under the Department of Revenue.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, yes, I understand that. Then they lose their identity and become State Policemen, do they?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, no.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, will not the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, agree to have it placed on the postponed calendar—it has already passed the House—until we have an opportunity to examine the particular section in House Bill No. 22?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will agree to let it go over until later today in order that there may be afforded an opportunity to examine it. The Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmier, will have an opportunity to examine it during the day to satisfy himself.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, I will be here Monday evening.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the Senator from Schuylkill Mr. Staudenmier, can then satisfy himself.

Mr. STAUDENMIER. Mr. President, all right.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the bill will go over in its order.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That, Whereas, the Public Works Program of the President of the United States for the relief of the unemployed is restricted to public works that are essential to the people of the community; and

Whereas, The Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House of Representatives of the United States and the Army Engineers of the United States have under consideration a project for improving the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers from the junction of the Beaver River with the Ohio River at the Borough of Rochester, northward in Pennsylvania, by making these rivers navigable to barge traffic; and

Whereas, The improvement of the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers would be one of the most useful and outstanding public works that the government could find in any community; and

Whereas, This improvement would make available large quantites of raw material and render more secure the continuation of the industries along said rivers, in which hundreds of thousands of people depend for employment and support; and

Whereas, The improvement of these rivers would furnish substantial employment to thousands of persons residing in the State of Pennsylvania, which are now unemployed;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the General Assembly of th Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorialize and request the Congress of the United States to authorize the immediate improvement of the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers, both for the employment relief which would thereby be furnished, and for the permanent continuation of the industries located in Western Pennsylvania, which are dependent upon these rivers being navigable.

HOUSE MESSAGES

PETITIONING CONGRESS TO REDUCE THE FIRST-CLASS POSTAGE RATE

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution of the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, January 9, 1933.

Whereas, The three cent postage has failed to produce the added revenues for the Federal Government predicted by its sponsors, for the principal reason that large corporations and public utilities have found it more economical to deliver monthly bills and materials by messenger; and

Whereas, Small businesses cannot meet this postal increase by the same means and are forced to pay the increase; and

Whereas, Two cent first class postage for the family letter has been one of the strongest ties of the American family, and this increase of fifty per centum (50%) in postage rates inflicts hardship on millions of people; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the General Assembly respectfully petitions Congress of the United States to repeal the law providing for three cent first class postage and that the rate be restored to two cents as heretofore;

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Senate shall send a copy of this resolution to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in Congress of the United States.

CONGRESS REQUESTED TO AUTHORIZE IMMEDIATE IMPROVEMENT OF THE BEAVER AND MAHONING RIVERS

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, April 10, 1933.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That Whereas, The Public Works Program of the President of the United States for the relief of the unemployed is restricted to public works that are essential to the people of the community, and

Whereas, The Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House of Representatives of the United States and the Army Engineers of the United States have under consideration a project for improving the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers from the junction of the Beaver River with the Ohio River at the Borough of Rochester, northward in Pennsylvania, by making these rivers navigable to barge traffic, and

Whereas, The improvement of the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers would be one of the most useful and outstanding public works that the government could find in any community, and

Whereas, This improvement would make available large quantities of raw material and render more secure the continuation of the industries along said rivers, in which hundreds of thousands of people depend for employment and support, and

Whereas, The improvement of these rivers would furnish substantial employment to thousands of persons residing in the State of Pennsylvania, which are now unemployed.

Therefore, Be it resolved that the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorialize and request the Congress of the United States to authorize the immediate improvement of the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers, both for the unemployment relief which would thereby be furnished, and for the permanent continuation of the industries located in Western Pennsylvania, which are dependent upon these rivers being navigable.

Be it further resolved that copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Clerk of the Senate to the President of the United States, to both United States Senators and each Member of Congress from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 548, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the seventeenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 32), entitled "An act fixing the salaries of court criers and tipstaves in counties of the third class"; authorizing the judges to fix the salaries of court criers and tipstaves within certain limits.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BOYD. Mr. Speaker, I find that this bill refers to counties of the third class. I also find that it increases the maximum salary of tipstaves from sixteen hundred and fifty dollars to eighteen hundred dollars. This appears to affect our county and is not an economy measure, and I oppose this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, may I say to the gentleman from Westmoreland and other members of the House, this bill only affects the third class counties of Lackawanna, Luzerne, Montgomery, Westmoreland and Delaware. When the counties of Delaware and Montgomery, and other counties, moved from the fourth class into the third class, the salary of the court crier was reduced from eighteen hundred dollars, which is the salary in fourth class counties. to sixteen hundred and fifty dollars, which is the salary in the third class counties. That seems ridiculous on the face of it, but it is a fact. In the fourth class counties you pay eighteen hundred dollars a year, and in the third class counties you pay your court crier sixteen hundred and fifty dollars. Moved by consideration of that fact we are asking in our county, where we have court criers who have real jobs to do and who perform them, that they be placed on the same basis as they were when we were a fourth class county. It makes a one hundred and fifty dollar increase to the court crier and in the expense of government, but if there is a reduction, as we have asked all of our officials to take, it means a further reduction from sixteen hundred and fifty dollars instead of eighteen hundred dollars, to which he ought to be entitled. If the salary rate is right, that is eighteen hundred dollars in the fourth class counties, certainly it is only right that it should be the same in the third class counties.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in view of the fact that we have been talking economy all along and also the fact that the expenses of our county at the present time are such that the taxpayers really are unable to make payment of their taxes, I cannot see why we should have an increase of any kind in the salaries of the folks connected with our local courts. Therefore, I rise to oppose this bill and ask the support of this House in opposing such a bill.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I don't wish to oppose everything, but as I understand it they say the poor directors get eighteen hundred dollars. I am in a fourth class county, and the poor directors get fifteen hundred dollars. I oppose any raise at the present time.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Mr. GALLAGHER. All right, Mr. Speaker.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1254, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved July ninth, one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred ninety-five), entitled "An act to fix the salaries of district attorneys in counties having a population of less than one million inhabitants, by striking out the provisions thereof that relate to counties having a population of less than fifty thousand inhabitants and making certain changes in relation to counties having a population of fifty thousand or more, and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2010, as follows:

An Act establishing courts of record in second class counties for control care and treatment of delinquent neglected and dependent children under eighteen years of age defining their jurisdiction powers and duties and regulating procedure therein providing for the transfer of certain powers functions and duties from other courts and reducing the number of judges of the county court providing for the appointment of the first judge of the children's court by the Governor and the election of judges thereafter the appointment of referees probation officers other necessary staff officials and assistants providing for housing of same and providing for detention facilities

Whereas The public welfare demands that children should be guarded from association and contact with crime and criminals and the ordinary process of the criminal law does not provide such treatment and care and

Whereas Experience has shown that children lacking proper parental care or guardianship are led into courses of life which may render them liable to the pains and penalties of the criminal law although in fact the real inerest of such child or children requires that they be not incarcerated in penitentiary and jail as members of the criminal class and

Whereas It is important that the powers of the court in respect to the care treatment education and control of delinquent neglected and dependent children should be clearly distinguished from the powers exercised in the administration of the criminal law that those powers be such as may secure for each child under its jurisdiction such care guidance education and control preferably in his own home as will conduce to the child's welfare and the best interests of the State and when such child is removed from his own family to secure for him custody care education and discipline as nearly as possible equivalent to that which should have been given by his parents and that such powers be established in recognition of the principle that children under the jurisdiction of the court are wards of the State subject to the discipline and entitled to the protection of the State which may intervene to safeguard them from neglect or injury and to enforce the legal obligations due to them and from them and

Whereas In the more populous districts where the number of delinquent neglected and dependent children is large their intrests can best be safeguarded and the public welfare more adequately promoted through a court that is presided over by a judge who is chosen for that particular position because of peculiar qualifications and who may in security serve in such capacity over a period of years therefore
